Set in 1905 in the little village of Anatevka, Russia, the story centers on Tevye, a poor milkman (Played by Peter Greer), and his five daughters Tzeitel (Kateri Mansel-Pleydell), Hodel (Madison Kindler), Chava (Lin Ballard), Shprintze (Anna Wiechart), and Bielke (Cataleya Perez). This colorful and tight-knit Jewish community consists of Golde, Tevye's wife (Rebecca Mansell-Pleydell), Yente the Matchmaker (Nichole Robinson), Motel the Tailor (Ben Harris), Perchik the Student (Alyx Harris), Fyedka (Jeremiah Hammon), Lazar Wolf the Butcher (Gary Coffelt), Mordcha the Innkeeper (Dusty Harris), The Rabbi (Bill Hobeck), Mendel, the Rabbi's Son (James Greer), Avram the Bookseller (Keith Robinson), Nachum the Begger (Clara Harris), Grandma Tzeitel (Earlee Harris), Fruma-Sarah (Mercedes Moncivais), Shaindel (Rochelle Riser), Yussel (David Vaughn), Villagers (Rosemary Cameron, Henry Clark, Avett Clem, Greyson Combs, Rachel Graber, Katherine Green, Jordan Hammersmith, Gemma Mansel-Pleydell, Layne Salisbury, Jordys Vance, Riana Yoder) and The Fiddler (Lydia Trzynka). Tevye tries to protect his daughters and instill them with traditional values in the face of changing social mores and the growing anti-Semitism of Czarist Russia. The Russians are an ever-present threat led by Constable (Dan Lehman), and his soldiers.

Rich in historical and ethnic detail, Fiddler on the Roof's universal theme of tradition cuts across barriers of race, class, nationality and religion. The show features iconic and beloved songs such as "Sunrise, Sunset," "If I Were a Rich Man," and "Matchmaker, Matchmaker," along with delightful choreography. Director Dave Snyder, is joined by Music Director Andy Gross,

Assistant Director Jordan Hammersmith, Choreographer Julie Hall and Producer Chris Feichter for this classic show at the Huber Opera House.

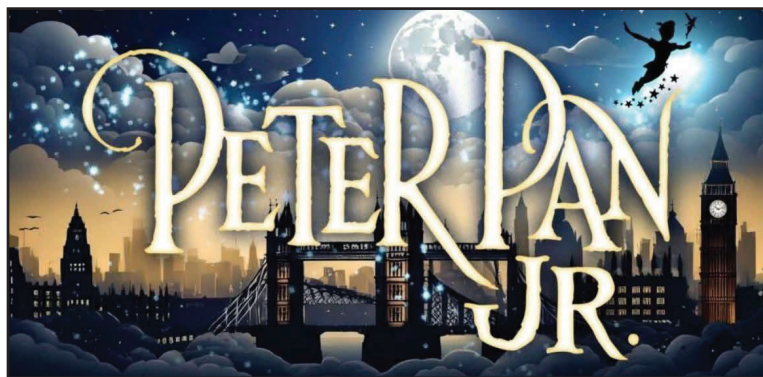

Winner of nine Tony Awards when it debuted in 1964, Fiddler on the Roof is the brainchild of Broadway legends, Jerome Robbins and Harold Prince; songwriters, Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick; and book writer, Joseph Stein. Touching audiences worldwide with its humor, warmth and honesty, this universal show is a staple of the musical theatre and is presented through special arrangements with Music Theater International (MTI). All authorized performance materials also supplied by MTI.

Make a full evening of this event at the Huber with dinner before the show offered on Friday and Saturday at 6:00 with the show at 7:00, or attend a Sunday Matinee at 2:30. DONORS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

In the past year, the Huber has been the recipient of some larger donations from individuals, estates, and organizations. These donations go a long way to assist with unexpected expenses and permanent improvements. Some of these funds have been in the form of IRAs that rolled over to the Huber to provide a start of an account for major improvements such as a new stage floor, a marquee, restroom updates and other projects on the wish list. Most recently, the Community Memorial Hospital Auxiliary gifted the Huber $10,000 as they distributed their funds to local non-profits which was a part of their dissolution of their organization. Estate gifts received recently included cash and rolled-over IRAs that have been set aside for future projects. Many other donations have also been designated to this account to accrue and mature. The Board of Directors review the maintenance and repairs list along with the "wish list" annually to prioritize the most immediate needs and projects to proceed with for that year. Recently these funds have been used to replace one of air conditioning units, update the lobby, and upgrade the stage lighting. All gifts large or small are always greatly appreciated and are tax-deductible. If you would like more information on Estate Planning, please feel free to contact the Huber Office or your financial advisor.

WE'VE HAD A FACELIFT!

Thanks to the generous donations of local citizens, the Huber had the opportunity to upgrade the main floor lobby and community room. In addition, we now have booster seats for our shorter patrons. In the lobby there are now a couple pictures of the Huber from the past that add the sense of the rich history of the theater.

Lighting upgrades have now been installed to improve the quality of our productions. Josh Stairhime has completed not only lighting for the stage, but also installed can lighting in the main area of the auditorium. This illuminates the floor space between the theater seating and the stage that is used for our dinners and other performances of bands and large groups as well as other events. Your support by attending our productions and your generous donations are being used for these wonderful upgrades to our theater and we thank you very much.
